The project Support to the health system for resilience in Cameroon Pro-PASSaR II, aims at improving the provision of good health services to the population, particularly sexual, and reproductive health and rights services, as well as psychosocial support. Within this framework, the project has been working for many years with the Regional Funds for Health Promotion. The project supports the Cameroonian Ministry of Health in the introduction and implementation of Universal Health Coverage (UHC). The Regional Funds for Health Promotion-RFHP were tasked with introducing and implementing the Health Voucher for pregnant women to improve access to reproductive health services.

As part of your service as a development worker, you will take on the following tasks:
Advising and supporting the Regional Fund in the introduction and implementation of the Health Voucher (Cheque Santé), HIV user fees and other financing mechanisms that contribute to UHC in Cameroon

Expert advice and support to the Regional Fund in the integration of software to improve the management of Health Vouchers and HIV user fees

Technical support and advice to the Regional Fund in reporting on Health Voucher management, fees for HIV users and other funding mechanisms

Monitoring the Regional Fund at strategic level meetings in connection with the health voucher and in the context of the implementation of UHC in Cameroon and the Eastern Region

Ensuring communication between the Regional Fund for Health Promotion in the East and the technical advisor of the regional funds of Pro-PASSaR II, as well as the technical advisor of the Health Voucher

Participation in internal Pro-PASSaR II meetings

University degree in Health Economics, Public Health, Social Protection, Sociology or other equivalent degrees

Sound experience in the institutional and organizational development of Social Health Protection mechanisms, in particular health insurance

Documented experience in planning, monitoring and evaluating health insurance systems

Knowledge of approaches to health financing in developing countries

Good knowledge of digital applications

Good writing, analysis and synthesis skills

Ability to work with multicultural and multidisciplinary teams

Fluent in French and German or English

To enable you to get ready for your assignment as a development worker and your outward journey, you will be given outward journey leave following your preparation time in Germany. As an employee/development worker, you will receive extensive additional benefits (e.g. monthly expatriate allowance, family allowances, private group health insurance) during your assignment, in addition to your remuneration / basic subsistence allowance. Your work will begin with an onboarding and preparation phase that will give you initial insights into GIZ and lay the groundwork for your upcoming assignment, establishing new contacts and building up your network. We will cover a large portion of the childcare costs for dependent children under 14 who are accompanying you if your partner is not doing so and is not a development worker or integrated expert themselves. Most nursery and school fees are paid. You and the members of your family accompanying you will be covered by our health and liability insurance, while your family members will also benefit from accident insurance. In countries in crisis, we operate a comprehensive risk management system for your protection, which minimises personal dangers and risks. We are a provider of international cooperation services for sustainable development and work to build a future worth living around the world. We support projects in over 130 countries to achieve goals sustainably together with our partners. Extensive check-ups and preventive measures (e.g. on appointment, before the outward journey, during the stay in a country of assignment, in an emergency) are provided to our staff and the family members accompanying them as a matter of course. We will reimburse you for your rental costs based on the rent index for your country as well as paying you an equipment and furnishing allowance on top. As a development worker, you can use the project vehicle for trips to school or to visit a doctor or can receive a monthly lump-sum mobility allowance instead. The project vehicle can also be used for personal trips with your manager's approval.

The basis for service as a development worker is the Development Workers Act (EhFG) and a comprehensive package of based on it. This includes, among other things, targeted professional and personal preparation. We offer the opportunity to work in an innovative, globally active development institution. Your competencies are in demand in an interdisciplinary team on site.

GIZ is a signatory of the Diversity Charter. Recognition, appreciation and inclusion of diversity in the company are important to us. All employees shall be valued - regardless of gender and gender identity, nationality, ethnic origin, religion or belief, disability, social background, age or sexual orientation.

We support equal opportunities and welcome applications from people with disabilities.
